

National Society of Professional Engineers®

Welcome Participate Purchase Reports Your Account Privacy Policy Help/FAQ

The Engineering Income & Salary Survey, 2005 Complimentary R

Complimentary Salary Report

Thank you for participating in the Engineering Income & Salary Survey. Below is your complimentary salary survey report for your engineering level, plus the level below. The complimentary report displays information for your region of the country

This complimentary report displays limited data only. For more detailed salary information on all engineering levels, you may purchase an online subscription that offers the ability to search by industry, region, experience, job function and supervisory status. Click Purchase to subscribe.

West Coast Region

Your Level: Engineer Level I/II

The entry level for professional work. Typical position titles include Junior Engineer, Associate, Detail Engineer, Engineer-in-Training, Assistant Research Engineer, and Construction Inspector. Equivalent federal general schedule grade GS-5, 7.

	# of Respondents	Average	25th Percentile	Median	75th Percentile
Base Pay	191	49,689	43,680	50,000	55,000
Bonus/Commission	105	3,231	800	2,000	3,000

Definitions

Base Pay = Annual salaries reported for primary industry. Excludes overtime pay and bonus/commissions.

Bonus/Commission = Annual amount reported.

NMS = No meaningful sample; the sample size is less than 10.

POWERED BY
SURVEY RESEARCH ASSOCIATES LLC™

© 2002 - 2006 NSPE and Survey Research
Associates LLC

